I WILL TRY VEGETINE. HE DID, AND WAS CURED. Delaware, O., Feb'y. 16, 1877.

Dear Sir-I wish to give you this testimony, that you may know, and let others know, what Vegetine has done for me. About two years ago a small sore came on my leg; it soon became a large ulcer, so troublesome that I consulted the dector, but I got no relief, growing worse from day to day. I suffered terribly; I could not rest day or night; I was so reduced my friends thought I would never recover; I consulted a doctor at Columbus. I followed his advice; it did no good. I can truly say I was discouraged. At this time I was looking over my newspaper: I saw your advertisement of my newspaper; I saw your advertisement of Vegetine, the 'Great Blood Purifier' for cleansing the blood from all impurities, curing Humors, Ulcers &c. I said to my family, I will try some of the Vegetine. Before I had used the first bottle I began to feel better. I made up my mind I had got the right medicine at last I could now sleep well at nights. I continued taking the Vegetine. I took thirteen bottles. My health is good. The ulcer is gone, and I am able to attend to business. I paid about four hundred dollars for medicine and doctors be-fore I bought the Vegetine. I have recommend-

Licentions Tongues.

While the really "horny hands" are busy with the implements of labor, licentious tongues Mr. Anthoni is one of the pioneers of Delaware, Ohio. He settled here in 1834. He is a wealthy gentleman, of the firm of F. Anthoni & Sons. Mr. Anothoni is extensively known, especially among the Germans. He is well known in Cincinnati. He is respected by all.

IMPURE BLOOD.—In morbid conditions of the blood are many disasses: such as salt than the blood are many disasses: such as salt than the sale and the abscript wheels of some the Schwabs, the Swintons, the Kearneys and the Chews to bring it within the cognizance of VEGETINE the mass whom it most concerns? It certainly is singular that a people most of whom are the peers in comprehension of these violent agica tors should have to be told, over and over again. that they are slaves and not freemen. It is not Dear Sir—I feel it my duty to say one word in regard to the great benefit I have received from the use of one of the greatest wonders of the spread his audience that they were slaves. It sured his audience that they were slaves. It tional liberty as the most opaque mind among the dusky freedmen of South Carolina. However, we all listen to these harangues, laugh, and go about our business. There seems to be no doubt that a certain amount of wagging by licentious tongues is a Vegetine as a cleanser and purifier of the blood | necessary to relieve the tension of the popular mind as the safety valve is necessary to re lieve the tension of a steam boiler. If there is a dangerous man anywhere in society, something is gained by inducing him to talk. His talk may not be edifying to anybody in particular any more than a sudden e-cape of steam from an overpressed boiler is edifying .-But both explosives are salutary, because they defend against more dangerous explasives. Everybody has some time witnessed a fracts among men who find it necessary to wreak themselves somehow. They scold, they swear. they threaten, they swing their arms about, and loudly proclaim what they can do, and what they will do if somebody does not look out. And at last they tire of their own vio lence, passion expends itself, and they subside. There has been a local cyclone, with a great deal of wind and lightning and thunder, and the climate is somewhat purified. We ear only fancy what would happen were such people > promptly suppressed Cohen, an act which is more his business than curs. Yet it will prob ably turn out that Cohen is a sort of escape pipe through which surplus steam generate by bad passions, is blown off. Cohen were to be a scamp. He is reported as utter g seditious language. But seditions langue may be rendered harmless in more than -way. The dangerous classes, who are take susceptible to the influence of such language, can be taught that words are vocat ized wind, and by themselves of no great ac count. la other words, such people may be taught that though seditious language may be tolerated, the act of sedition will be followed by swift punishment, just as thunder follows the lightning. Though a noisy agitator may convene an audience on a vacant lot and har angue it in a violent manner, not much harm is done if only the auditors understand that it be treated with, but promptly and certainly punished. We are not all sure that the people of San Francisco did not choose the better plan in dealing with Kearney. They might easily enough have made a martyr of him. Perhaps that was what he wanted. What they did do was to prepare to bring any attempt to put Kearney's violent theories into practice to a swift and complete ending. The crowd that followed Kearney knew this; and as an invari able rule, the crowd does not affect the martyr business. Not many of the people who tag at the heels of such men as Cohen and Kearney care to furnish the seed of the church. Kear ney's visit to Boston may be made a blessing if only the authorities give notice that Mr. Kear ney can talk until he is wind broken, but noth ing more will be tolerated. Let the steam escape by all means, but see that it sealds no body but the carcless folks who meddle with the levers. Except in times of great excitement, the most violent language does little harm, and as often as otherwise it defeats it
